

When the airplane started moving, I heard our students scream "So fast!". When the airplane took off, many of them were anxious and saying "Wow, wow!" After landing I heard them say, "we landed safely!" In our bus ride, I heard comments like, "Wow! That's a monorail!", "Hey! I can see the rainbow bridge!", "Ahh, that's the Tokyo sky tree!" or the funniest one was "that's Moss burger." (But we have Moss burger in Kanazawa, too)

These were the student's reactions from experiencing Tokyo for the first time. We know that this trip is truly important from these inspiring words. Many students were able to feel and experience many new things. Things that they cannot experience in their daily lives.

School gives us many opportunities to interact with other people, like club activities, field trips and volunteering. We know that these exciting experiences will give children high self-confidence and high self-esteem. Our educational goal is to raise our kids so that they can be resilient students who can survive in the society. To accomplish this, students must broaden their views and minds to connect them to their actual experiences.

Making effort adds to our success. Helping each other multiplies it.

In the sports festival, we were impressed by how students performed in their group together and how they passionately devoted themselves to each event. Also, we are sure that they learned many things behind the scenes that are necessary for the events.

When you add great effort (studying is about every day effort), multiplied by our cooperation (preparing for the cultural festival by helping each other creates unlimited power), we all advance together. We would like all of you to come and see the fruits of the students effort.

-Principal Katsuhiko Takada

Let's actively take part in our school events

★effort goals

*Let's have a fulfilling school life

- Do your classroom work and your committee work with responsibility.
- Do cleaning without talking.
- Be tidy and follow the dress code.
- Help each other for the cultural festival.

Town PTA ceremony • Shonennoshucho contest

On Sunday October 20th, there will be a Town-PTA ceremony and Shonenno shucho speech presentation at Chosanson-kaihatsu center. 6 of our students will join the presentation. The application deadline is over but the town is looking for more participants. Please feel free to join it. We hope all of you to come and listen to the lecture and our students' presentations. The participants are:

Our new student council staffs! 2nd year, you are the leaders!

There were student council election speeches and voting on September 26th. 1 president, 5 executive committees, 8 heads of committees were elected. From this period, we added a new committee called the Studying committee.

Head of the PE committee

Head of the Health committee

Head of the Clean-up committee

Head of the Cultural committee

Head of the announcement committee

Now that I am the student president, I will take action and do everything that I mentioned in my speech or in my campaign slogan. Not only by myself but with other executive committee members and representatives, we would like to work together and make our school better. I think others won't work actively if the student president isn't working actively. Therefore, I would like to revise my own actions and always do things positively. I would like to do my best. Thank you for your cooperation.
